

HR & Leave Policies

Introduction

This document outlines the Human Resources policies and leave entitlements applicable to all employees of the organisation. It is designed to ensure transparency, fairness, and consistency across all departments. Employees are encouraged to read this policy carefully and direct any questions to the HR department.

Types of Leave

Annual Leave: Every full-time employee is entitled to 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Part-time employees receive leave on a pro-rata basis. Leave must be applied for at least 5 working days in advance through the HR portal and is subject to managerial approval.

Sick Leave: Employees are entitled to 10 days of paid sick leave per year. A medical certificate is required for absences exceeding 3 consecutive working days. Sick leave cannot be carried forward to the next year.

Casual Leave: Up to 6 days of casual leave may be availed per year for personal or family matters. Casual leave cannot be clubbed with annual leave or public holidays.

Maternity & Paternity Leave

Female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of fully paid maternity leave as per the Maternity Benefit Act. This applies to the first two children. Paternity leave of 10 working days is granted to male employees within 6 months of the child's birth or adoption. Supporting documentation must be submitted to HR.

Leave Without Pay (LWP)

Employees who exhaust all entitled leave may apply for leave without pay with prior written approval. LWP for more than 30 consecutive days requires the approval of the department head and HR Director. Extended LWP may affect benefits, appraisals, and increment cycles.

Attendance & Punctuality

All employees are expected to maintain a minimum attendance of 85% per quarter. Repeated late arrivals or early departures without valid reason may result in disciplinary action. Attendance is recorded through biometric systems or digital login on the company platform.

Grievance Redressal

Employees who feel their leave requests have been unjustly denied may raise a grievance with the HR department within 7 working days of the decision. All grievances will be reviewed within 15 business days. The company is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful work environment for all staff members.
